

14th ANNUAL GULF COAST "WOODSTOKE" FESTIVAL

Saturday, February 9th, 2019

To benefit the Sister-State Exchange between the state of Florida and Wakayama Prefecture, Japan

January 7th - February 11th of 2019, the Gulf Coast Kiln Walk Society (GCKWS) will host master ceramic artist Masayoshi Shimizu from Iwade City, Wakayama, Japan, to Santa Rosa County for the "Masters of Wood-fire" celebration and Festival. Mr. Shimizu will conduct all activities at the Gulf Coast Kiln Walk site in Holley Navarre preceding the festival. Wakayama has been a Sister-State of Florida since 1995 and we are honored that Santa Rosa County will be home to this historical exchange.

Last year over 1200 people participated in the month long activities leading up to the "WoodStoke" festival which involves workshops for the preparation, firing and unloading of two large historical kilns. The ancient Anagama is the largest in the state of Florida, and the Ralph Howard Phillips Southern Groundhog is the only 1940's era wood-fueled kiln in the state.

Your sponsorship will allow free educational workshops to all visitors, residents and students of all abilities. The workshops will include making of pottery by a Japanese Master, glazing demonstrations, traditional Japanese tea ceremony, tool making and traditional glazing, loading and firing techniques for wood-fueled kilns. You will also help us bring a historical collection of art pottery from Japan to Santa Rosa County to remain in a permanent collection at GCKWS's proposed "Historical Working Center" in Holley-Navarre, for the ceramic arts.
